THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

A GRAND COUP D'ETAT—A NEW POLITICAL DEPARTURE.

We copy from the New York Herald an article sustaining the President in his action expelling Stanton from the War Department. Eliminating paragraphs that do not bear upon the main point, we produce portions of the article of the Herald, as follows:

"The President has struck a decisive blow. Stanton, as Secretary of War, has been superseded, and General Grant, for the present, is appointed to take charge of the War Department. We presume that before making this change Mr. Johnson had a full understanding with General Grant, and that the latter, without hesitation, will enter up on his new duties. We know that this appointment, if accepted, will command the confidence of the country, and that thus no apprehensions of any serious loss to the public service will arise from Mr. Stanton's suspension. * * * * *

So far, then, the President has properly met the issue raised by a defiant subordinate in his refusal to resign when politely requested to leave. But Mr. Johnson must not stop here. He has only crossed the Rubicon; the great fight is still before him, and he must fight it out. The broad and general issue between him and the rampant Radicals is still between his policy and their policy, although reduced to the application of the reconstruction laws of Congress. He proposes a liberal interpretation, whereby the Southern whites will have a chance in this business of the reorganization of the ten outside Southern States. The Radicals propose and have inaugurated a rigid and inflexible enforcement of the laws against the Southern whites, and have shown liberality only to the blacks, whereby the political destinies of the several States concerned may fall into their hands. The question thus presented is, whether the ten excluded Southern States, as a national political balance of power, shall be controlled hereafter, for ten, twenty, or fifty years, by their five hundred thousand nigger voters. Is the country at large prepared and ready for the transfer of the political power of the South from the late oligarchy of slaveholders to their emancipated negro slaves? Is there no half-way house of safety between the one extreme and the other? President Johnson thinks there is, while Stanton and his Radical supporters hold that there is not, and are resolved that there shall not be.

Upon this broad and general issue Stanton has been displaced, and General Grant, in stepping into the vacancy, takes his popular influence with him from Stanton and his Radical faction over to the side of the administration. This is an important point gained. But it is only the beginning of the work required of Mr. Johnson to clear the track of Radical obstructions. We have heard enough within the last few days of the want of backbone and harmony in his Cabinet to satisfy us that the suspension of Stanton will only weaken the administration, if not followed up by other suspensions. "In for a penny, in for a pound." * * *

Next, in regard to the five commanders of the five Southern military districts. We have renewed guarantees that Sheridan's head will soon be brought to the block—a necessary proceeding, perhaps, to defeat the game of Stanton. But is not the programme of reconstruction adopted and pursued by the other four commanders substantially the same as that of Sheridan, and equally, or to a greater or less extent, in disregard of the President's wishes and suggestions? Why, then, make fish of one and flesh of another? To meet the case fairly and fully, Mr. Johnson must have a new set of military commanders, from first to last. Otherwise he will fail to touch the Radical reconstruction combinations which run from Mr. Schenck's Congressional Executive Committee through all the military and Freedmen's Bureau machinery of the South, in behalf of negro supremacy. A new Cabinet and a new set of military commanders under Gen. Grant, who is generously inclined towards the Southern whites, will enable Mr. Johnson to turn the tables upon Stanton, Stevens, and Sumner in the interval to the next appointed meeting of Congress in November.

In pursuing his first decisive blow with these other decisive blows suggested, Mr. Johnson cannot fail to make a case so broad and a sensation so general in his behalf as to result in a powerful popular re action in our coming Northern elections in favor of white supremacy against Southern negro supremacy, especially as the white policy of Johnson will be represented by Gen. Grant as the general superintendent of Southern reconstruction by authority of Congress."

From the Memorial Diplomatique, July 30.

CARLOTTA SAID TO HAVE BEEN POISONED IN MEXICO.

If we can trust a letter from Trieste, written by a person worthy of confidence, the suspicion that the Empress Carlotta had been poisoned before returning to Europe no longer appears to be a mere hazard.—The practiced eye of so able a practitioner as Doctor Bulkens was struck with the abnormal symptoms of the august patient.—However violent and painful may have been the emotions which the Empress has experienced since her departure from Mexico, they could not, according to the laws of pathology, be the only cause of the mental exaltations and moral prostrations which alternately succeed each other, and seem to defy the resources of science. It is certain that in the month of July, 1866, her Majesty, after having embarked at Vera Cruz, was seized with a sleeplessness, occasioned by a flow of blood to the head, and which continued during the whole voyage. Since then symptoms have been constantly remarked, indicating a profound alteration in the blood, which, from her Majesty's youth and robust constitution, cannot possibly be explained otherwise than by the pernicious action of a physical agent. Everything therefore tends to the belief that some subtle poison had been administered to the Empress by the traitors, by whom the Court of Chapultepec was only too closely surrounded, and that her Majesty in leaving Mexico carried with her the germ of the frightful malady which broke out on the 4th of October following at Rome. In fact, a few days after the departure of the Empress, certain American journals, probably initiated into the terrible mystery, pretended that during the transit from Mexico to the port of embarkation her Majesty had given manifest signs of mental alienation; that now, then premature, was to be verified a few months later. The Empress herself instinctively suspected the truth; for as soon as her mental faculties began to be troubled, she was beset with the idea that she had been poisoned, and she still remains under the influence of that conviction.

Our correspondent terminates his letter by announcing that the royal patient is going to be submitted to a treatment calculated at the same time to calm her mind and neutralize the effects of the alteration of her blood: and if, as our correspondent hopes, this treatment succeeds, a cure, slow, without doubt, is still possible.

DOTY'S CLOTHES WASHER.

THE BEST AND MOST POPULAR
WASHING
MACHINE EVER INVENTED.

IT is easy to operate, sitting or standing; takes but little room, injures no garments; finishes its work in from two to four Minutes; is durable and convenient, and the only Washing Machine known that is

WARRANTED TO LAST AS LONG AS THE CLOTHES THEMSELVES.

No rubbing required. The clothes are placed in, soap and water added, the machine is started and in ten minutes from the time the operator sits down the clothes are washed. While this is going on, and all the while power is required, a Universal Clothes Wringer is obtained at one and the same time. The wringer done at once, the clothes are cleansed, and they require only to be rinsed in cold water, wrung, and hung out to dry.

With a Universal Clothes Wringer, to press out the water without twisting, the whole labor of washing day is but a pastime, compared with the old system of rubbing and wringing.

THE CLOTHES ARE NOT INJURED.

No buttons will be pounded off, nor the clothes worn out by the use of this machine, as is the case with all machines operated by the old system of pounding, rubbing, and twisting.

By dispensing the hands, the mass of goods is passed through at once, and thus forcing the hot suds through the texture, carrying the dirt with it. Washing in this way from two to three times as quick as with the best machine in use, and much better. Every piece of clothing is done by the same process.

By using the WASHER and the UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER, you will avoid the usual breaking of stitches and buttons, pounding, rubbing, straining, wearing and tearing of the clothes, to say nothing of the pain knuckles, sore backs, and ruined lives.

Full directions for using are attached to each machine.

Ladies are kindly invited to call and examine this machine, which is the cheapest, simplest, and most effective ever offered to the public.

Rights for sale on liberal terms.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. L. PELL, } SEATON GALES,
EDITORS.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1867.

THE TWO PHASES OF THE FUTURE.

We sought, in a former article, to depict some of the evils that would result from the prevalence of the Radical policy and the predominance of negro rule in North Carolina. We confess our inability to give an adequate portraiture, in words, of the dangers which menace us, in view of so deplorable a result, as those dangers present themselves to our minds. Tempest-see furnishes the best, or rather the worst, illustration of the anarchy, turbulence and ruin that are involved in the success of the bad and vindictive men who are seeking to rule and ruin our good old State.

We sought to impress upon our people, at the same time, our conviction that they had the remedy for this terrible condition of things in their own hands. We are satisfied if every man, who is entitled to do so, will register and vote, that while the literal terms of the Congress will be fully complied with, we can yet defeat and annihilate the ulterior and savage schemes of the designing creatures, who are seeking, but too successfully, to use the colored element for the degradation of the white majority, in order to satiate their greed for plunder and to gratify their thirst of revenge.

There never has been, in the South, so dogged and determined a spirit of energy, or so resolute a spirit to grapple with emergencies, as that which prevails, this day, throughout its borders. This is clearly evidenced by the comparatively rapid recuperation from the desolations of war, and that triumph over the discouragements of the situation, which have taken place. It is a spirit evolved from the stern ordeal of necessity,—the spirit which marks a race of men, whom the extremest difficulties are powerless utterly to prostrate or subdue. It is a spirit, which, properly fostered, will make the South, in the future, a grander and a more rich and teeming land than it has ever been in the past. It is a spirit which has taught us to develop resources and multiply ingenuities heretofore unessayed or undreamed of. The devastation of our fields, instead of causing the farmer to gaze with hopeless despair upon the wreck of his industry, has inspired the effort to make them bloom more luxuriantly than before. From the ashes of burning towns, new energies, Phœnix like, have sprung. The destruction of an entire system of labor has produced the enquiry whether other labor might not be more productive and effective, and a willing and earnest adaptation to new industrial requirements. All posterity will mark it as the most crying shame of history, that such a spirit and such endeavors, instead of being promoted and encouraged, should be repressed and blasted,—as blasted irretrievably they must and will be, under a policy which threatens confiscation, and perpetrates actual political degradation,—elevating the former servile class, without any training of education or experience, over the heads of the former governing majorities, the enlightened descendants of the founders of the government, and the proprietors and tax-payers of the country in which they live. The case might be put much more strongly.

It needs no sanguine imagination to forecast what North Carolina, with such a spirit of energy, as that we have described, animating her people, might and will become, under a just, stable, beneficent government,—one protecting all classes of its citizens in the full enjoyment of their rights, oppressing no one, depriving no one of his just privileges, dispensing its burdens and favors equally, but one lodged, where it of right belongs, in the hands of the majority of the people. The West, with its mines and mountain-ranges,—the mid land counties with their fields of wheat and tobacco,—the East with its naval-stores, corn, cotton and fisheries,—our rivers and streams, with their inexhaustible water-power,—all of these, under the impelling hand of a new born enterprise and the exactions of necessity, would contribute to make North Carolina second to no State in the Union in all the elements of material wealth. Always, at heart, loyal to the Constitution of the country, her people, surveying the evidences of prosperity, and recognizing in them the effect of a liberal and beneficent government, would have that loyalty intensified and strengthened; and the Union will have secured one of the strongest guarantees of its permanency in the confidence and affections of its citizens.

LIBERATION OF IRELAND.—An unknown correspondent from Oregon, who signs himself James Jamieson Sheasgreen, sends us a series of scriptural calculations and coincidences, commencing with the prophetic period of "a time, times and half-a-time," and coming down through the different eras, and finally reaching the conclusion to which he was driving, i. e. that Ireland will be liberated from the yoke of England in 1869. His calculations are minute, and so arranged that they cannot be inserted in the columns of a newspaper, and, if they could, would be intelligible to very few readers. The event which he predicts is not more unlikely than many which have occurred within the present century. The manuscript may be seen by the curious at this office.

EX-GOV. VANCE addresses the people of Mecklenburg, to-day, in favor of registration. We trust that he will speak on the same subject at various points.

THE UNIVERSITY.—It is stated that the students of the University recently insulted the son-in-law of the President of the institution, simply because he was a General in the Union army; and that a Professor has been treated so rudely for having made a Union speech, as to be compelled to resign in self-respect. We warn the Trustees not to gratify this disloyal spirit by putting any "Confederate" General or politician into the University, either as President or Professor. We know of no "Confederate" or Union General who is qualified by keeping for a Professorship in a literary institution of any thing above third rate character. If the Trustees are wise they will recall Professor Hedrick, who was expelled for his devotion to liberty and Union ten years ago. They should at the same time retain Professor Hepburn, who is only obnoxious because he is loyal; and then if they were to invite such a man as Judge Edwin G. Reade, to take the Presidency, their work might stand.

We were surprised to find the above in the Register of this City. "It is stated!" Upon the authority of whom and by whom? It is by this means that the Radical papers of the North, and their confreres of the South, have kept up an intense hostility and spirit of retaliation among the Northern people. The imprudence and ungenteel deportment of a few boys and girls, sometimes provoked, too, by the recipients of their retorts, are too often trumped up as evidence of the disloyal feelings of whole communities. We have heard of no insult to any one, simply because this or that man was a U. S. soldier, or because of any one's Union sentiments, at Chapel Hill or anywhere else. If such things have occurred, they have often been provoked, but in no instance has such conduct been endorsed or approved in the communities where they have occurred. Unfortunately, these often base stories have had a bad effect upon the feelings of Northern officers or persons who have come South, and have led them to keep aloof from our people, thus taking it for granted that these stories were all true and that these things were approved by our people—whereas every man or woman of sense in the South, considers it a breach of gentility, in any one among us, to treat a stranger rudely or unkindly, because he occupies this or that position.

The Faculty at Chapel Hill, all of them, have acted as discreetly as men ever did under the circumstances. They have labored to impress upon all, that politics was no part of their business or instructions. The most of them were decided Union men before the war, during the war and since the war, yet the Trustees have never complained or objected to them on this account, so long as they filled their positions ably and acted with discretion. So far as we can learn, no Professor has been insulted or driven away for making a Union speech.—None of the young Professors of the University have been more popular with the students, Faculty or Trustees, than Prof. Hepburn, and all of them regret his resignation. He leaves because the plan of the Institution does not suit his views—he prefers that it be made a University, in form and in fact, in all respects,—and because men of his abilities can command a better support elsewhere. Indeed, none of the Professors can remain there on the meagre pay they receive, and for that reason several have resigned and others will.

As to the suggestions of the Register, or any other paper, about what the Trustees ought to do, or ought not to do, we presume they will pass for what they are worth, and no more. The Board of Trustees, we take it for granted, is, perhaps, about as wise a body as the managers of the Press in the State, and we submit that an attempt to dictate to it, or to threaten, as has been done, is in bad taste. Should the Board recall Prof. Hedrick to a chair in the University, the Sentinel, so far from objecting, will endorse it far more heartily than some of the Register's confreres would, who contributed so much to his being forced off from the University, originally. We have heard of no "Confederate General's" name being connected with the Presidency of the University, who would likely be selected by the Board, or who would accept, if elected. If, however, a gentleman possessing all the qualifications requisite for the position of President, and a true man in all respects, who had been a "Confederate" General, were to be selected, no man of right feelings ought to object to him on that account. We unhesitatingly affirm, that if there were another such as Robert E. Lee, who now presides with such dignity and success over Washington College, in Virginia, to be found, we should unquestionably cry out, with both hands up, give us that man for the Presidency of the University; and we should do so with the assurance that such a choice would not in the least affect our devotion to the Union and the Constitution, and the government of the United States. And we have a poor opinion of the friendship of any man for the University, who would object to it.

THE TELEGRAPH has already informed our readers that Judge Thomas, of Virginia, has been arrested, under a presentment by Underwood's Grand Jury, for refusing negro testimony in his Courts. He was indicted in May, 1866, and was not arrested until August 1867! The law of Virginia has been made to conform to the requirements of the Civil Rights bill, since this indictment was found, and Judge Thomas has always received negro testimony since that change took effect. The Richmond Dispatch well says that the arrest of a Judge of spotless purity of character causes in the United States no greater sensation than the capture of an Indian!

WE were favored last night with the old familiar sounds of martial music heading a procession that halted in front of our office. Three cheers were given for the Daily Post, three for the Editor, three for the 40th Congress and three for Gen. Sickles. Three groans were given for Andy Johnson and the procession moved on in good order.—After leaving our office they proceeded to Headquarters and cheered the Commandant of this Post.—Wilmington Post, 14th.

What a spectacle is here! A motley crowd, "groaning" for the Commander-in-Chief of the armies of the United States, and then cheering a Post-Commander!—We are surprised that Col. Frank did not rebuke such conduct as it deserved.

MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS.

On yesterday, we inserted the following, upon the authority of our Northern exchanges:

"It is now stated that one reason why Mr. Stanton was unwilling to leave the War Office, was that he had "information of a scheme" "for arming military organizations in the late insurrectionary States, whose ultimate object is another assault upon the Government!"

We do not believe that Mr. Stanton has authorized any such declaration, nor that he, or any other Radical of sense, believes it. There are Radicals, "of the baser sort," who would make such a statement, for a political or personal purpose, but they would do so, knowing it to be false. We have heard of no hint, desire or movement on the part of any Southern citizen for a military organization in the South, except the organization of Brownlow's militia in Tennessee, and the organization of the negro Leagues into military companies, in the South,—all at the instance of the Radicals.

A gentleman of reliability informs us, that in Harnett County, he learns, one or more colored Leagues meet regularly at given places, with companies fully organized, with drum, fife and banner, for the purpose of drill. These organizations, we have reason to believe, exist in other parts of the State, and we beg respectfully to call the attention of the Post Commanders to the fact. Such organizations are, in our judgment, in violation of the spirit, if not the letter, of Gen. Sickles' Order for the preservation of peace and quiet.

We beg further respectfully to call the attention of Post Commanders to the Order of Gen. Sickles, forbidding the wearing and carrying of deadly weapons among all citizens. It strikes us that Gen. Sickles' Orders to the police, to Magistrates, Sheriffs and constables, both in town and country, require a strict surveillance of all citizens in this particular. We fully approve of the Order and desire to see it enforced. Some are ignorant and need instruction. And we learn that colored persons insist upon it, that Gen. Sickles does not mean to apply these Orders to them. Let these concerned in the execution of this Order look to it.

TENNESSEE.—An intelligent gentleman, now residing in Middle Tennessee, writes to a friend in this City, under date of the 10th inst., from whose letter we compile the following interesting items. Alluding to the late severe overflow in the Mississippi and Western rivers generally, and a late trip on the Mississippi, he says:

"I found matters down the river better than I expected after such a disastrous overflow. The like has not been seen, since 1821. It is really a wonder, that anybody makes any thing; but the energy and determination displayed by the Southern people was never exceeded."

"The crops on the alluvial river bottom lands are sorry everywhere,—but on the uplands the crops are very fine, both corn and cotton. The corn crop exceeds anything I ever conceived of. All through this portion of Tennessee, these rich uplands will produce from 8 to 10 barrels to the acre. The wheat crops were also very fine."

"The political complexion of affairs here in Tennessee is as dark and dreadful as you can possibly imagine. The demoralization of the negroes grows in intensity every day. Such a despotism, in my opinion, does not exist in the South. A "war of races" I consider as inevitable, not only here but throughout the South, unless the people of the North—the conservative people,—arrest it. They can do it, and I know of no other power that can. The negro "Leagues" went embodied to the polls with fife and drum, and in many localities armed to the teeth, and I suppose 49 in 50 voted for Brownlow, with the war-cry of "Confiscation and forty acres of land."

THE RICHMOND Whig, alluding to the late meeting of ex-Federal soldiers and sailors in that city, and to the patriotic and liberal declarations of Col. Merrill and others, (noticed in the Sentinel, on yesterday,) says:

"Other members of the organization spoke in the same spirit. All this goes to prove what has often been said, that if the questions at issue between the Northern and Southern people could be left to the arbitrament of the officers and soldiers of the two armies, rather than to the politicians and non combatants, they would long ago have been amicably disposed of. The warrior feels "a true joy" in grasping the hand of "a foeman worthy of his steel."

A SWINDLER.—We learn from a reliable source that a man calling himself Wm. S. Forest, of Norfolk, Va., has been playing the confidence game on some of our citizens. He has notes in his possession purporting to be written by Admiral Buchanan and James Barron Hope, Editor of the Norfolk Virginian, and states that he is a member of Dr. Armstrong's Church, in Norfolk—he also says he was on Buchanan's staff during the war. This fellow tried to borrow $5 from us on Sunday last; but we "smelt a mice" and were not "bitten" by him. He stopped at the Boarding-house of Mrs. Carraway and left without paying his bill. Look out for him, brethren of the press, and hand him around.—Western Journal of Commerce.

The same rascal was in this City, last week, and succeeded in imposing upon the charity of a Minister in this City, to the amount of $5. He produced the same letters, and told such a pitiful tale of his embarrassments as to work upon the kind feelings of the gentleman in question. He was to return the amount borrowed in a day or two,—as soon, we believe, as he reached Weldon, where his baggage had been mis sent! We know the general disposition of our people to relieve the distress of ex Confederate soldiers, but it will be well for them, when so many impostors are about, to exercise some caution in dispensing their benefactions.

A preacher named Wendt, who had been Superintendent of the Germantown (Pa.) Orphan Asylum, was arrested in Rochester yesterday, on a charge of having habitually outraged the persons of young girls in the asylum for the past year. He has a wife and several children in Germantown.

GOOD FOR TENNESSEE.—The Philadelphia Press (Radical!) coolly says it would not desire to see such a man as Brownlow Governor of Pennsylvania, but he is good enough for Tennessee.

STATE NEWS.

—— The Goldsboro' Morning Star says that Mr. Smithers, of this City, will establish, in a short time, in that place, a plough factory and steam grist-mill. He will also manufacture farming implements, from a pitch-fork to a ten-tooth harrow.

—— The customary August "penning" of the Bank ponies will come off on the 19th and 20th inst., on Core Banks. The occasion is expected to attract a large crowd of purchasers, as it is probable the ponies will go at very low prices this year, owing to the stringency of the money market. So says the Newbern Journal of Commerce. We expect that our "Tide-Water Correspondent" will give us a full account of the "penning."

—— A young man, named D. L. Stone, was arrested in Newbern, on Wednesday, with a valise in his possession containing three coupon bonds of North Carolina, and other papers, belonging to S. T. Jones, Esq. The valise was stolen on the A. & N. C. R. R train, on Saturday last, and the man was caught trying to sell one of the bonds on the streets.

—— The Goldsboro' Morning Star recommends Rev. Dr. A. M. Poindexter, of Virginia, for the Presidency of the University. Dr. P. is a native of North Carolina, and was born in Bertie County. The Star speaks in exalted terms of his qualifications.

—— The following is the result of the first day's registration in Charlotte: Whites 176; Blacks 342.

—— On Tuesday last, Davidson County Court being in session, Gen. Leach addressed the people on the political questions of the day. "He took strong grounds," says the Old North State, "against the favorite measures of the leading radicals of that county, and of the State—confiscation, disfranchisement, and Brownlowism generally. He pointed out most forcibly what would be the probable consequences if these extreme men should get the control of the coming convention, and urged all to register, who could do so under the law, and vote for moderate men to represent them in that body. He was quite severe upon Henderson Adams and Col. Billy, whom he mentioned, and who writhed considerably under his excoriations. After Gen. Leach concluded, Major Robbins, of this place, made a stirring address of a half hour's length."

—— Capt. Robert P. Waring has withdrawn from the editorial chair of the Charlotte Times, and has disposed of the establishment to Messrs. Jones and Johnston, who will hereafter conduct the paper. The repairs and changes necessary in the establishment will not enable them to appear before the public until next week. We tender Capt. Waring our kindest wishes in his retirement, and extend the right hand of welcome to the new firm.

—— A very large concourse of citizens assembled in Charlotte, on Thursday evening, to confer upon the subject of registration. We learn, from the Guardian, that Gen. Jno. A. Young presided. Gen. Young, Col. Bryce, Judge Osborne, Hon. J. H. Wilson and W. R. Myers, Esq., addressed the meeting. All advocated the importance and duty of registering. The annexed preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, we, the citizens of Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, having met in public meeting, for the purpose of consulting together and to impress upon all citizens the duty and importance of registering their names at the approaching registration, and having heard with pleasure the remarks of the gentlemen who have addressed us: Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting it is the paramount duty of every one qualified, to register.

Resolved, That we would impress upon them the importance of so doing.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, it is the interest and duty of the people of North Carolina to vote for a convention of the people of the State, and that the best practicable selection of representatives in that Convention be made, without reference to former political opinions."

IMPORTANT TO HOLDERS OF UNITED STATES SECURITIES.

The following notice has been issued by the Secretary of the Treasury:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Aug. 13, 1867.

The privilege of converting seven thirty notes falling due on the 15th. instant, into five twenty bonds bearing date the 1st. day of July, 1867, will be extended to the 15th. day of September next. All notes of this issue which shall not have been presented for conversion by the day last named, will be paid on presentation at the Treasury of the United States, and at the offices of the Assistant Treasurers at Boston, New York, and Philadelphia in currency.

HUGH MCCULLOCH.

Five-twenty gold interest bonds, into which the Seven-thirties are convertible, are now at a premium of 8½ per cent.

PLAIN TALK.—During the discussion of the suffrage question in the Connecticut Legislature, Mr. Hamersly, of Hartford, said:

"Sir, the gentleman from New London has suggested that Congress may force negro suffrage upon us! and he seems to think we may as well have it now as to wait for Congress to force it on us. I would not go for the change under any threat that 'Congress may make. Let them try it if they dare. Let them send on their armed cohorts and their Generals to say to Connecticut, 'You shall have negro suffrage.' If we don't resist to the death, then, sir, our free institutions will be lost forever." [Great applause, which drowned the Speaker's hammer.]

The Hon. Edward Stanly, formerly a Representative from North Carolina in the Federal Congress, and, during the war, Military Governor of that portion of the State in Federal occupancy, is making speeches against Gorham, the Republican nominee for Governor of California. Mr. Stanly opposes the reconstruction policy of Congress, but favors qualified negro suffrage.

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED LADY.—The Tallahassee Sentinel announces the death of Madame Murat, which occurred at her plantation, in Jefferson county, Fla., on Tuesday morning last. She had attained the advanced age of seventy years. Her demise will be sincerely lamented by a large circle of acquaintances.

The Boston Post says: A lady passed through this city yesterday for the mountains with sixteen trunks, four poodles, three maid servants, an Irishman, and a husband.

The Washington Chronicle now declares the execution of Mrs. Surratt to have been a foul murder committed by a few violent partizans to satisfy the clamor of an infuriate mob. Two years ago the Chronicle declared the man so saying to be a traitor and a murderer at heart. How circumstances alter cases!

W. T. Sutherlin, Esq., sued the town of Danville for five thousand dollars—a debt contracted during the war. The town contended, first, that it was usury; secondly, that it was illegal under the Alexandria Constitution; thirdly, that if legal, it ought to be scaled. But the jury the other day brought in a verdict for the whole amount.—Danville Times.

No discrimination in favor of any place or city only so far as to carry the great products of the State as well as return merchandize over the Railway lines largely owned by the State.

This arrangement, while it gives as great facilities and as cheap rates as by any other line, will aid in paying something into the State Treasury and into the common school fund, by which taxes will be lightened and the poor children educated. These are some of the reasons for a change of route to pass by Goldsboro.

The N. C. R. R., the Wil. & Weldon R. R., and the Seaboard and Roanoke Rail Road Companies, have agreed that all goods, not otherwise specially directed, shall pass by way of Goldsboro, for Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, at the same rates and in the same time that they can be carried by any other route

This has been arranged and freight trains now run in close connection from Portsmouth to Charlotte.

LIFE INSURANCE.

From the "Home Friend."

The Ætna Life Insurance Co.

IT IS ALWAYS WITH PLEASURE THAT WE observe the evidences of prosperity in the workings of any Life Insurance Company. In our day the advantages of Life Assurance are too apparent to require argument in its behalf; but at the same time, there are not a few who stand ready at all times to seize upon a flying straw and cast it to one side or the scales, in the hope of counterbalancing the weight in the other; and inasmuch as the success of any particular Company, or class of, be an index of the general prosperity of all that are equally well conducted, we take especial pleasure in noticing the general progress made by the Ætna. Our figures are from the pen of Prof. Elizur Wright, late Insurance Commissioner for the State of Massachusetts, whose opinion upon matters of insurance is perhaps entitled to more weight than that of any other man in the country; not only from his acknowledged abilities as a scholar, but he will from his long familiarity with the details of the science of Insurance.

Statistics are often made up with a view to suit particular cases; but not so with those of Prof. Wright. In the statements before us from the distinguished source, and which we have carefully examined, the value is given of all the policies of the Ætna in force on the first of January 1867; and as we take the liberty of inserting here a few of the figures.

At the date above mentioned, there were in force a total of nine hundred and eighty-four thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine policies, insuring the sum of two hundred and eighty-nine million six hundred and twelve thousand two hundred and ninety dollars; of the present value of one hundred and eighty-nine thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine dollars and sixty cents. There were also in force at the same date, a total of twenty-five thousand and nineteen participating policies, insuring the sum of sixty-five million four hundred and forty-four thousand three hundred and seventy-nine dollars; of the present value of three million four hundred and forty-nine thousand six hundred and eight dollars and eighty-three dollars and seven cents; making a grand total of twenty-six thousand and three policies actually in force, insuring the sum of sixty-seven millions fifty-six thousand six hundred and sixty-nine dollars, and of the total present value of three million six hundred and thirty nine thousand four hundred and twenty-two dollars and sixty-seven cents. But as the prosperity of a Company depends not so much upon the amount of its business as upon its solvency—its ability to pay its debts, we go a step farther, and find that while the Ætna has in force this large number of policies, with some small annuities amounting in the whole to three millions four hundred and nineteen thousand one hundred and fifty-eight dollars and sixteen cents of liabilities, it has a total of assets at the same date, of four millions four hundred and one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three dollars and eighty six cents; or nearly one million of dollars of assets in excess of its liabilities. From the same source we learn that, after paying a dividend of fifty per cent. on the saving year upon those on the ordinary life plan entitled to the same, amounting to two hundred and eighteen thousand one hundred and fifty-five dollars and sixty-two cents, there is an excess of ninety-three thousand one hundred and forty-three dollars and forty-four cents; and that the surplus from the ten-payment life policies exceeds two hundred and eighteen thousand dollars.

In the year 1861 the Company issued five hundred and eighty-nine policies; in 1862 it issued eight hundred and four; in 1863 it issued eighteen hundred and twenty-two or more than double the number of the previous year; in 1864 it issued four thousand five hundred and seventy-seven, being again more than double the number issued during the preceding year; in 1865 it issued eight thousand eight hundred and fifteen policies, being another increase of nearly a hundred per cent; while during the year 1866 it issued fourteen thousand one hundred and eighty-nine policies, being an increase of five thousand three hundred and seventy-four over the issue of 1865, and being more than twenty-four times the amount of business done in the year 1861, when the new plan of operation commenced. Up to the present time the Company has issued this year between five and six thousand policies; and if the business continue the same during the year, the result will show another very large increase over that of last year.

During the year 1866 the receipts of the Company for premiums and interest were over three and a half millions of dollars, while during the same period the total expenditures were but a fraction over one million; in which sum is included the very small claims by death to the amount of nearly four hundred thousand dollars. This statement shows that the business of the Company for the last year added to the Surplus Fund, after the payment of all claims, of every nature whatever, the sum of two millions three hundred and sixty-five thousand and ten dollars and eighty-one cents, being a sum larger than the entire previous Surplus.

It has been represented that a large part of the profits of the Company go to enrich the stockholders; but the only foundation that we can find for such allegation, is the fact that the stockholders receive the profits of the small amount of business that is done on the stock, or non-participating plan. The entire profits accruing on the participating plan, except six per cent. paid annually on a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, belong to the insured, and are divided among them every year. Comparisons are useless, and often out of place, and we shall make none; but we do not hesitate to say that the record of the Ætna for the past year, is as honorable and flattering to the Company as it is gratifying to the policy-holders. Its success, as shown by the statement above made, is almost unprecedented; and it seems hardly credible that any Company should have gone on doubling its business year by year, as the Ætna has done during the period covered by our brief review; yet such is the case, and the most gratifying part of the record is that for the past year, wherein the Surplus Fund has been so very largely increased. These successes are to be attributed, in a great measure, to the management of the Company.—The officers, from the President down, have been untiring in their efforts; and they have not forgotten that very important and necessary class of individuals—the Agents, whose co-operation they have secured by affording every facility to these agents that could be desired. We congratulate the Ætna upon its success in the past and its prospects for the future; and we cordially tender the wish that its record for the present year may be as gratifying as that shown by the last annual statement."

The ÆTNA is now issuing

NEARLY 1,300 POLICIES EVERY MONTH

and is doing by far the largest business of any other Company in the Southern States.

OVER 800 PERSONS,

Among the number our most prominent and influential citizens and leading business men, are insured in this department alone.

THE MILITARY COMMISSION.

UNITED STATES VS. TOLAR, POWERS AND WATKINS.

FRIDAY, Aug. 16, 1867.

George Smith, sworn:—Lives in Fayetteville; is thirteen years old. Was near by the market-house, when Bebee was carried up stairs. Was playing marbles near I. B. Davis' store, when the pistol fired; gathered up marbles quickly and ran over to see what was the matter. Saw my brother, Rufus Smith, Jim Dunn and "Monk Julia" there, in the crowd. Wemiss had fallen down and was getting up, when I went over there. Bebee was lying on the pavement, shot. "Monk" was eight or ten feet off, "raving and jawing." Heard him say that morning, that "he would be a dead nigger and that he (Monk) would lead the way, if anybody else would follow."

As witness went up, he heard cries of "Tolar, Tolar, Tolar shot."

Cross Examined: Did'at see Capt. Tolar. Don't know him. Did not hear the words "Tolar," "Tolar shot," until he got across the street where Bebee was lying. Bebee's head was near the market house, and he was lying near the corner. Was not quite dead when witness got there. Did not see Dr. McDuffie there at all.

Re Direct: As soon as the pistol fired, witness picked up his marbles and ran over to the market house; found Bebee dead or dying, and Wemiss just getting up. Heard cries of 'Tolar," "Tolar;" also "Tolar shot him," "Tolar shot him."

Rufus Smith, sworn: Ten years old; live in Fayetteville. Remembers that Bebee was killed. Was in Fayetteville on that day; saw Bebee brought from guard house and carried to market house; saw a big crowd of people there. Saw Mr. McDonald and Jim Dunn and many others. Did not go up stairs; saw Miss Massie come in a carriage with her mother, and go up stairs. Saw Bebee come down the steps with Mr. Wemiss; he had hold of Bebee. After Bebee got down and out on the pavement, some body shot him. (Points out Capt. Tolar present as the man.) The boys and all cried out it was "Tolar shot him," just as soon as the pistol fired. It frightened me. Witness saw his brother George there soon after the shooting. Mr. McDonald told witness not to tell anything about it, and not to go near the body of Bebee; but witness cried out, with other boys, that it was Tolar, who shot Bebee.

Cross Examination: Know some men in Fayetteville have talked with Willie Porter something about this. Willie has told me that Capt. Tolar shot him. Witness knew the man, that day, who shot the pistol, but did not know his name. The boys told him it was Tolar. Don't remember that he ever saw Capt. Tolar before the day that Bebee was killed. After witness came in the Court room, he, witness, pointed out a man and asked his father, who was sitting by him, who that man was, and his father said "Tolar." Witness knew he was the man whom he saw shoot Bebee and wanted to know his name, as he knew he would have to tell it in Court. Was standing near Capt. Tolar when he fired. Tolar was about two yards from Bebee when he fired. Can't tell what kind of pistol it was. It was not a gun. Can't say whether Tolar was on the pavement or not. Thinks Tolar was off the walk. Jimmy Dunn pointed out Tolar to witness. Knows Mr. Sam Phillips, who keeps a store in Fayetteville. Don't know that it was him who shot the pistol. Did not see him there. Know Mr. James McDonald; he told witness "not to tell any body." It was after the shooting he told me. Willie Porter told me he had been up here to swear; he did not tell me what he swore to. He did not come to see witness, but witness saw him near the guard house, where the lime is. Willie Porter said it was Tolar, the day Bebee was shot.

(This little witness seemed much frightened, while being examined,—crying most of the time, and saying, "don't hurt me."—REP.)

John X. Smith sworn: Live in Fayetteville; was not at the market house when Bebee was killed, but was at Mr. Robt. Mitchell's store on Gillespie Street. Noticed a very large crowd about the market house; it was unusually large. Have been living in Fayetteville about twenty-one years. Could see Bebee most all the time, after he came down the steps, until he was shot. Heard outcries, two or three times, "shoot him," "shoot him," "kill him," "kill him;" saw Bebee struggle with the officers and fall, and saw some one fire a pistol; could not tell who it was; afterwards saw "Monk" with a knife in his hand crawling towards Bebee, but was pushed off by some one.

Cross Examination:—The distance from the east end of the market house to Mr. Mitchell's store door, where I was standing, is about eighty five or one hundred yards. Witness saw, through one of the arches, Bebee coming down steps; also saw Wemiss with him and Hardie; could distinguish Bebee at that distance. Hardie came down in front; cant say he had hold of Bebee. Bebee fell near the corner of the market house; saw the flash of the pistol, heard the report, and saw Bebee fall. Cannot say whether the man who fired was standing on the pavement or not.

Was summoned as witness on Wednesday; have not conversed with anybody about this since summoned.

The evidence for the Prosecution here closed.

DEFENCE.

I. R. Davis, sworn:—Live in Fayetteville; carry on a tin business on the South East corner of the market house. Bebee was killed about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.—Saw Bebee as he came down stairs. After Bebee got on the pavement, witness thought a demand was made for him; did not hear any words. Was about fifty or sixty feet from Bebee when he was shot. Bebee fell near the corner of the market-house, when killed. At that time, witness was looking at Capt. Tolar, who was standing near the main arch; was attracted by Tolar's being a large man. Witness swears, positively, that Capt. Tolar did not fire the pistol.—Heard the pistol fire.

Know the general character of John Shaw, (a former witness,) for truth; it is bad. Witness knows that he, John Shaw, was tied up by his thumbs for cattle-stealing, because witness did it himself, by order from the Captain of the local police.

Cross-Examined: Was Orderly Sergeant of the local police; first name is Ichabod.—Have been living in Fayetteville about fifteen years. Saw Capt. Tolar about five minutes before the shooting was done; he was standing at the same place that he was when the pistol fired. There were about fifty persons at the market house; it was calm and quiet, not an unusual crowd. Tolar was the only person witness recollects seeing in that crowd, except Sheriff Hardie. Was looking at Tolar when the pistol fired. Saw Faircloth and Wemiss and Bebee on the steps. When Bebee came out on the pavement, witness heard no noise, except the rustling of the feet on the pavement.—Did not see policemen using their clubs; saw no rush, but saw (two hands as if to catch Bebee, in a demanding position. Remembers that Capt. Tolar was standing perfectly still, and that he wore a shawl.

Never have testified before about this.—Have told Capt. Tolar's counsel that witness intended to swear that Tolar did not fire the pistol.

Witness went over to Bebee's body, about fifteen minutes after he was shot; saw Isham Blake there. Don't recollect seeing any body else there. Witness don't know what John Shaw's neighbors think of his general character. Witness has heard his (witness') brother say that "he would not believe him (John Shaw) on his oath." He (witness) only knew of his stealing cattle. Witness was Orderly Sergeant of the local police and he was commanded in a written order from the Captain (Orrell) to tie him up by his thumbs. Capt. Orrell did not belong to the U. S. Army. Witness was looking at Capt. Tolar when the pistol fired, and swears most positively that Capt. Tolar did not fire the pistol that killed Bebee. Does not know of any combination to kill Bebee, or attack him on that day.

Re-Direct: Tolar was ten or twelve feet from Bebee when the pistol fired. There were ten or a dozen persons between Bebee and Tolar and the crowd was moving about.

Questions by Court: When Bebee was brought out of the market house, the crowd passed between Tolar and the South side of the main arch. Tolar was about six feet from the side of the arch.

Court adjourned to this (Saturday) morning, 11 A. M.

MODEL CORRESPONDENCE.—The Richmond Dispatch contains a letter from the White Sulphur Springs, Va., which is a racy specimen of multum in parvo. This is it:

"THE WHITE," August.

The best "Sally Lund" and the richest widow are at the Alum. The meanest ten-pin alley is at the Hot. The Rev. Dr. Van Dyke, of Brooklyn, is at the Sweet. He is a lineal descendant of the Dutchmen who dug down their "dykes." The "old flag" didn't scare him. Little curls in front are fashionable here. They are made by spitting on the hair and rolling over the little finger. The laundry uses washboards. The caterer at the Alum is short, and can't see his feet. General Joe Johnston came to the Hot one evening—fell back to Alum next day. The latest style is for the ladies in the cabins, when it rains too much to attend the dance, to send the dresses they would have worn to be hung up in the ball-room. They bring them over in a covered spring-wagon kept for the purpose. There's a "kitten" tiger at the Alum. The best fare and the smallest company are at the Healing. Blacking shoes is ten cents here. Short dresses are fashionable for ladies with small feet; trails for fat ankles. There is a real Bengal tiger here; he bit a youngster the other night "cause he kep foolin wid him." Heard Hoge—he's a regular rifled Parrott with patent sights—trees the fellows in front, and goes clean across after the stragglers and quartermasters. A Baltimore sample clerk thinks Lee the greatest captain of the age—the General had bowed to a crowd he was in. The Yankees didn't get all the jewelry. Woodward here is the same Monsieur Soyer that fixed up a venison steak out of a mutton for some rich old southerners. They would have given him all their estates, but they invested everything in Confederate bonds. L.

The cholera is said to have nearly disappeared from Memphis, as only nine deaths from it occurred there last week.

The deaths from fever are increasing in Galveston, Texas, and the disease is rapidly extending itself to other parts of the State.

NEWS BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

—REGISTRATION—FIRST DAY.—Newbern. (1st. Precinct, consisting of 1st and 3rd. Wards.)—Whites 116; Blacks 91.

Henderson—Whites 34; Blacks 191.

—The Wilmington Journal, alluding to the first day's registration in that City, (result given in yesterday's Sentinel,) says:

"The colored voters largely preponderated. This is owing to the fact that in the First Ward a very large proportion of the negroes reside, and the dense crowd which thronged around the doors and in the room occupied by the Registrars, must have deterred many whites from attempting to gain admission. We fear, also, there is a very general indisposition upon the part of our old citizens to register."

WEATHER AND CROPS IN THE SOUTH.

SAVANNAH, Ga., August 15.—It has been raining in torrents all day. Reports of Florida and Georgia crops are very good.

AUGUSTA, Ga., August 15.—A heavy rain storm has prevailed all day and still continues. It is feared the cotton will be seriously injured.

GENERAL SHERIDAN AND JUDGE HOLT—PROSPECTIVE REMOVALS—INTENTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, August 15.—As yet there are no further developments in the matter of changes of prominent officers, but the orders relieving General Sheridan and Judge Advocate General Holt are expected hourly. It is not believed to be the purpose of the President, for the present at all events, to relieve any of the district commanders, save Gen. Sheridan, but his action in that direction will be governed by future events.

It is also understood that the purpose of appointing a successor to General Sheridan is not that the State officers removed by the latter shall be generally reinstated, but to stay further removals upon what Mr. Johnson regards as frivolous and partizan grounds.

JUDGE ADVOCATE HOLT.—We cannot hear that Mr. Holt, in his high character as an officer of the United States army, has yet offered any excuse, apology, or extenuation touching his participation in what related to an undoubted conspiracy to destroy the office and life of the President.—Nat. Intel. 15th.

FRUIT TREES AND GRAPE VINES.

Those wishing to supply themselves with choice and improved varieties of FRUIT TREES and GRAPE VINES, from the famous Nurseries of Westbrook & Co., Greensboro, N. C., will please leave their orders with us, and we will deliver them the trees and vines at our store, opposite Market Square, Fayetteville Street.

We will be prepared, in a few days, to furnish Catalogues from which those wishing to order can make such selections as they wish before giving us their orders.

Choice fruit rells well in any market, and in view of the difficulty of procurring labor for the successful cultivation of Cotton, &c., farmers should lose no time in bestowing a portion of their attention to orchards and vineyards. An inconsiderable amount of money, expended now in the purchase of choice fruit trees and such grape vines as experience has proven to be best adapted to our soil and climate, will, in a few years, bring in the return of hundreds of dollars. Orders are respectfully solicited.

I have permission to offer as references, Messrs. Peter E. Smith, W. H. Smith, D. Edmondson and T. Vaughan, of Scotland Neck N. C., all of whom have used it with great satisfaction on their plantations. Those who put up Screws will be sorry for it.

PAST AND FUTURE.

I look back to childhood's early years;
Were it not best to live wholly in the past?
Why not, with memory's eye,
Look upward, accomplished, upward eye
Dim hope and fear, and leave our
All the world to all its doubts?
And forget, toward the brink, in every
Of mystic dark, what [illegible]?
Well might we wish all were [illegible]
Could [illegible]
Would [illegible]
Will night to York and [illegible]
[illegible]
Will [illegible]
To the evil from our [illegible]
Will [illegible]
Or will the end of youthful hope [illegible]
Its olden brightness on our [illegible]
And waste heart-waters. But it cannot be.
And since it cannot, wherefore should we [illegible]
Were it not easiest to trust that He,
Who all things past and future sees, doth keep,
With [illegible]
And gives us strength in [illegible]
In characters as pure as [illegible]
Yes, we will trust Him, [illegible]
Forsake the past, and look on [illegible]

AN AMUSING STORY.

A green hoosier, who had journeyed in an ox wagon from Tennessee, found himself for the first time in Augusta, Ga., and in pursuit of a fresh supply of [illegible] whiskey. He slowly, as a man approaching a trap, entered a highly decorated saloon, and after much misgiving and hesitation, the premonitory chills of a "[illegible]" chasing each other in rapid succession down his back, he modestly ventured to ask the attendant to fill his jug, and while this was being done, he chanced to raise his head, and his eyes fell on a three foot by seven mirror behind the counter, in which he was fully represented; but he did not begin to know himself. Behind him, on the wall, was a life large painting of a Royal Bengal Tiger, in attitude ready to spring forward. He instantly dodged [illegible] and went:

"Run, you cussed [illegible] ugly fool, thar's a striped boar cat as big as a yearling fixing to kiver you!"

Paloosh [illegible] where the bar keeper was filling his jug.

"Say, gin me that jug jest as it is, empty [illegible] (pointing to the mirror) durn quick, ef you don't want [illegible] your hasslet tore outen you, for thar's the devil to pay in that ar back room!"

Seeing the whiskey, seller rather slow in his motions to suit his hurry, he put for the street with his [illegible] out and his hair erect, saying:

RUDE.—It's rather remarkable that while several thousand feet are required to make one rood, a single foot of property applied, is often sufficient to make one civil.

Why is a nugget of gold found at Ballarat, Australia, like the Prince of Wales? Because it is a production of Victoria, and may soon become a sovereign.

"Is there any danger of the boa constrictor biting?" asked a visitor of a zoological showman: "he never bites—he swollers his victims whole."

A man with a very large head, has been complimented on the fact that the capital was analogous to Greenland. "Why so?" he asked. "Because it is a great white bare place," was the reply.

"I've got no hoops on this morning," observed [illegible] "Why, then," asked cousin John. "What do you mean, stupid?" "Why, if there are no hoops the staves are liable to come out, you know."

RECONSTRUCTION.—SUPPLEMENTARY TO THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

TAX BILL NO. 2.

PASSED AT THE LAST SESSION.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is hereby declared to have been the true intent and meaning of the act of the second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, entitled an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and of the act supplementary thereto, passed on the 24th day of March, in the year 1867, that the governments then existing in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas were illegal and void, and that the same governments, if continued, were to be continued subject in all respects to the military commanders of the respective Districts and to the authority of Congress.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the commander of any district named in said act shall have power, subject to the approval of the General of the armies of the United States, to have effect till disapproved, whenever in the opinion of such commander the proper administration of said act shall require it, to suspend or remove from office or from the performance of official duties and the exercise of official powers, any officer or person holding or exercising, or professing to hold or exercise, any civil or military office or duty in such district, under any power, election, appointment, or authority derived from or granted by, or claimed under any so called State or the government thereof, or any municipal or other division thereof, and upon such suspension or removal such commander, subject to the approval of the General aforesaid, shall have the power to provide from time to time for the performance of the said duties of such officer or person so suspended or removed, by the detail of some competent officer or soldier of the army or by the appointment of some other person to perform the same, and to fill vacancies occasioned by death, resignation or otherwise.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the General of the armies of the United States shall be invested with all the powers of suspension, removal, appointment and detail granted in the preceding section to district commanders.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That the acts of the officers of the army already done in removing in said districts persons exercising the functions of civil officers and appointing others in their stead are hereby confirmed; provided that any person heretofore or hereafter appointed by any district commander to exercise the functions of any civil office may be removed, either by the military officer in command of the district or by the General of the army and it shall be the duty of commanders to remove from office, as aforesaid, all persons who are disloyal to the government of the United States, or who use their official influence in any manner to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct the due and proper administration of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That the boards of registration provided for, in the act entitled "an act supplementary to an act entitled 'an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States,' passed March 2, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, before allowing the registration of any person, to ascertain upon such facts or information as they can obtain, whether such person is entitled to be registered under said act, and the oath required by said act shall not be conclusive on such question and no person shall be registered unless such board shall decide that he is entitled thereto; and such board shall also have power to examine under oath (to be administered by any member of such board) any one touching the qualification of any person claiming registration. But in every case of refusal by the board to register an applicant, made in every case hereinafter provided, the board shall make a note or memorandum, which shall be returned with the registration list to the commanding Generals of the Districts, setting forth the ground of such refusal or such striking from the list: Provided, that no person shall be disqualified as a member of any board of registration, by reason of race or color.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That the true intent and meaning of the oath prescribed in said supplementary act is (among other things) that no person who has been a member of the Legislature of any State or who has held any executive or judicial office in any State, whether he has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States or not, and whether he was holding such office at the commencement or the rebellion or not, has been disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the text of the clause referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval departments of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have never yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath or affirmation and signed shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or in the Department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, and addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplementary to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district named in the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States (except persons disfranchised in said act) [illegible] years of age and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, [illegible] do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of [illegible]; that I have resided in said State [illegible] months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of [illegible], of the parish of [illegible], in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do: So help me God."

Such oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty days' public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union, and such convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the same ratio as it was allowed to the State Legislature in 1860. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered electors of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, and declare and proclaim the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers appointed to superintend said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the day of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which this is supplementary; and when the same shall have been framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the return thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5. That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, then at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, or in otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
